

Bachelor in Human Resource Management

A Bachelor's in Business/Human Resource Management prepares you for interaction in the arena of managing employees for a business.

Your interpersonal skills will be developed, along with a working knowledge of how a business functions. This major focuses on employee issues such as recruiting, hiring, management of salaries and benefits, and ensuring that laws regarding the treatment of employees are followed. You will develop problem-solving skills to handle issues that may arise amongst employees or between employees and upper management. Your studies will also touch on the essentials of accounting and finance. The goal of this major is to set you up to be the one in charge of all human resource issues for a business. By completion of the coursework you will have a functional understanding of the role of the human resources department within a business. You will have a firm grasp of your role in this department in negotiating between the business and its employees to ensure that both parties are pleased with their experience at work. This major will prepare you for: This major enables you to step into the human resources department for almost any business. Specific areas of opportunity include: Human resources manager, Director of personnel, Training and development of employees, Recruiting and placement specialist, Mediation/arbitration, and Employee benefits management. Also available is further education at the master's or Ph.D. level, where you can specialize in the areas of staffing and labor relations, arbitration, consultation, etc.

Schools That Offer Associate in Accounting

This program is designed for advanced practice nurses who hold a Bachelor of Science in Nursing (BSN) degree and licensed as a Registered Nurses with at least one year of clinical experience.

For nearly 50 years, YTI Career Institute has served as a beacon to our students-brightening their outlook for the future and illuminating their path to a rewarding career.

A nonprofit, regionally accredited higher education institution, Pacific Oaks offers bachelor's completion and master's programs in a variety of fields, including Human Development, Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT), Education, Early Childhood Education (ECE), Teacher Credentialing, and Organizational Leadership.

Bryant & Stratton College offers a personalized career education and experience leading to high-demand professions so graduates are prepared for their careers and life pursuits.

Southern New Hampshire University is a private, nonprofit, accredited institution with more than 3,000 on campus students, over 170,000 online students, making it one of the fastest growing universities in the nation. Since its founding in 1932, the University has transformed from a school of accounting and secretarial science into an institution offering over 200 programs, from certificates to doctoral level degrees including business, education, liberal arts, social sciences and STEM.