

Certificate in Pharmacy Technician

A certificate is the lowest level of all degree types, and is most commonly achieved as a means of career preparation. Certificates are often granted for very concentrated areas of study.

Pharmacy technicians assist pharmacists with both administrative and technical duties. A pharmacy tech's duties may vary based on state regulations and may include counting pills, answering inquiries, preparing prescription containers and receiving prescriptions over the phone, by fax or at a retail counter.